

بِسْمِ اللَّهِ الرَّحْمَنِ الرَّحِيمِ

Open Relations with the Raafidah (Shee'ah) is not Possible!

Author: Imaam 'Abdul 'Azeez Bin Baaz (Rahimahu Allah)

Source: Sahab.net

Translator: Abu 'Abdis Salaam Siddiq Al Juyaanee

Closeness and open relations with the Raafidah (Shee'ah) and Ahlus Sunnah Wal Jama'ah is NOT possible. This is because the Creed (of each party) differs (from the other). The Creed of Ahlus Sunnah Wal Jama'ah is to single out Allah Alone, making all worship solely for Him Alone. They (Ahlus Sunnah) do not worship nor supplicate to anyone other than Allah; not an Angel that is close nor a Prophet that has been sent. They (Ahlus Sunnah) also believe that only Allah knows the unseen. Likewise, from the Creed of Ahlus Sunnah is to love the Companions and supplicate to Allah that He be pleased with them (radi Allahu 'anhum ajma'een). (Ahlus Sunnah) also believe that they (the Companions) are the best of Allah's creation after the Prophets ('alaihimus salaam); and that the best of them is Abu Bakr As Siddiq, then 'Umar, then 'Uthmaan, and then 'Ali (radi Allahu 'anhum ajma'een).

The Raafidah (on the other hand) disagree with all of this. So for this reason (both parties) could NEVER unite; just like the Jews and Christians could never unite, and the People of the Sunnah could never unite (and become one) with the Pagans.

Thus, closeness and open relations with the Raafidah (Shee'ah) and Ahlus Sunnah Wal Jama'ah is not possible due to their differences in Creed which I have already expounded upon.

